

Opening:

Jim Houston, President, called the June Monthly Meeting of the Tipton County Master Gardeners to order at 6:15pm on June 1, 2006 at The Covington Extension Office.

A. Approval of Minutes

The minutes of the previous meeting were unanimously approved as distributed. Mr. Houston will supply all members with a new updated email address list of all members.

B. Old Business

1. No update on the Sunshine Center
2. County Clerks office still being maintained by Robin Ferrell
3. Elementary School completed
4. Call Booker to get a project on the list to be considered as a Master Gardener Sanctioned Project. All sanctioned projects must have a Master Gardener to oversee it.

D. New Business

1. Members need Master Gardener Applications to distribute.
5. It is okay to send out letter to promote our re: Speakers Bureau
6. Master Gardeners are encouraged to support The Farmers Market.
8. Please submit ideas if anyone would be interested in a summer educational trip.
7. Memphis Daylilies Organization is having a Daylily show Sunday June 11.
8. Hypertufa Class has been cancelled
9. Ideas for participation in the Heritage Festival: Hypertufa demonstration- Fund Raiser a Scarecrow Contest at $20 per entry. Johanna is coordinating our part in the the Heritage Festival.
10. Jim Houston will donate the use of part of his acreage for Mater Gardener Projects.
11. Do we want to start a seed bank? Ideas and thoughts are still being requested.

E. Adjournment

Jim Houston, President, adjourned the meeting at 6:55pm. The next regular Monthly meeting will be held on July 6, 2006, 6:00 pm at Covington Extension Office.

Minutes submitted by:

Beverly Moranville, Secretary